MEMORANDUM FOR: Assistant to the Director

SUBJECT : CIA Portion of U. S. Government Organization Manual

I believe the current text of the CIA portion of the U. S. Government Organization Manual as forwarded to you by GSA on 5 March is correct, with the exception of the name of the Director and, I assume, the telephone number. In an effort to dispel the notion many people have that we are in the law-enforcement business, it might be desirable to include a statement as to the authority we do not have. An additional paragraph, also taken from the National Security Act, could read:

The Agency has no police, subpoena, or law-enforcement powers or internal-security functions.

ATTN OF:

SUBJECT: 1973-74 edition of the Manual

TO: U.S. GOVERNMENT ORGANIZATION MANUAL LIAISON OFFICERS

Enclosed are two copies of your agency's statement as published in the 1972-73 edition of the U.S. Government Organization Manual. We shall appreciate your assistance and cooperation in the prompt revision and return of the "Manual" copy not later than Wednesday, April 11, for inclusion in the 1973-74 edition. The other copy, marked "Agency", is for your files.

In order to save time and to avoid unnecessary typing and checking, please indicate minor changes or corrections in pencil on the submitted copy. If a substantial portion of the material is retyped, the original and one copy, double spaced, should be submitted.

The Manual will carry a July 1 date. Although we must send your copy to the Government Printing Office early in May, fairly extensive changes may be made through June 1. Minor changes and changes in personnel listings may be made through July 1. These may be telephoned to Ms. Girard or Mr. Minning on code 13, extension 36257.

Director RICHARD HELMS.
Deputy Director LT. GEN. VERNON A. WALTERS, USA.

CREATION AND AUTHORITY.—The Central Intelligence Agency was established under the National Security Council by the National Security Act of 1947 (61 Stat. 497; 50 U. S. C. 403). The Director and Deputy Director are appointed by the President by and with the advice and consent of the Senate.

PURPOSE.—For the purpose of coordinating the intelligence activities of the several Government departments and agencies in the interest of national security, the Agency, under the direction of the National Security Council:

1. Advises the National Security Council in matters concerning such intelligence activities of the Government departments and agencies as relate to national security.

2. Makes recommendations to the National Security Council for the coordination of such intelligence activities of the departments and agencies of the Government as relate to the national security.

3. Correlates and evaluates intelligence relating to the national security, and provides for the appropriate dissemination of such intelligence within the Government using, where appropriate, existing agencies and facilities.

4. Performs, for the benefit of the existing intelligence agencies, such additional services of common concern as the National Security Council determines can be more efficiently accomplished centrally.

5. Performs such other functions and duties related to intelligence affecting the national security as the National Security Council may from time to time direct.

Approved.

RICHARD HELMS,
Director.
